Dear Mr. Zucchet,

I read with interest your comments in today's Union-Tribune regarding the expansion/redesign of Seaport Village. In looking at the plans, while not all the on-land changes are what I might prefer, the most atrocious addition is the massive water-grab for boat slips. These boats are enjoyed by a few individuals while blocking our beautiful bay views for all but a small handful of upper-class citizens, some of which would likely not even live in San Diego. The bay and its views should be enjoyed by all of San Diego, and all of our all-important tourists, not reserved for the view of those that are rich enough to own a boat. I urge you and your fellow board members to reject any proposal that includes the boat slips along the Seaport Village waterfront.

Respectfully,

Bradford Monroe
