No requests received.

C. Pledge of Allegiance.

Commissioner Urtasun led the pledge of allegiance.

D. Closed Session Report Out.

Thomas A. Russell, General Counsel, announced that the Board considered items on the Closed Session Agenda. Mr. Russell stated that no reportable action was taken.

E. Public Communications.

The following member(s) of the public addressed the Board with non agenda-related comments: Sharon Cloward, President San Diego Working Waterfront, and Neil Sholander, Business Representative, Teamsters 911.

F. Board Committee Reports.

Commissioner Naranjo announced that the Audit Oversight Committee (AOC) met on March 16, 2023. Commissioner Naranjo provided an overview of the 2023 committee work plan, which the AOC accepted and is recommending for Board approval. The committee also reviewed the engagement letter for the financial statement audit and single audit ending June 30, 2023 and received presentations from staff on various topics including the Audit Plan Status Report for Fiscal Year 2023, cybersecurity and the fraud ethics prevention hotline.

Commissioner Urtasun reported on the Environmental Advisory Committee's meeting held on April 5th, 2023, which was the committee's first in-person meeting since 2019. Commissioner Urtasun shared that the committee reviewed and is recommending their work plan for the year 2023 for Board approval. The committee also received presentations on the progress of the Maritime Clean Air Strategy (MCAS), including updates on zero-emission equipment and vehicles, shore power infrastructure installation, and electrification planning, as well as an overview of I Love A Clean San Diego's environmental education programs.

Chairman Castellanos announced that he facilitated the first 2023 Maritime Stakeholder Forum on April 6th. Highlights of the forum included: presentations by Commute with Enterprise on how to encourage employees to participate in van pool programs, which furthers the Maritime Clean Air Strategy (MCAS) goals; update on proposed changes to the Port's anchorage and guest docks ordinance; presentations on the status of the Crowley's eTug (first all-electric powered harbor tugboat in the U.S.), the Port's upcoming Maritime Month Campaign, and cargo and cruise updates. In addition, BAE shared news on purchasing jellyfish bots with Low Carbon Fuel Standard (LCFS) funding to help remove debris from water.

G. Commissioners' Reports.

Commissioner Naranjo provided a report on the Transportation Committee of the San Diego Association of Governments (SANDAG) which met on March 17, 2023. Commissioner Naranjo announced that San Diego is set to receive $61.9 million in state and federal funding for 13 projects that improve mobility and safety for bicyclists, pedestrians, transit riders, and rail passengers. The majority of the funding will be used to upgrade safe bicycle and other routes in disadvantaged communities. These projects are part of the Active Transportation Program administered by the California Transportation Commission, and were selected from 434 project applications submitted from around the state. In addition, the SANDAG Transportation Committee heard a report on a study to create a transit mobility hub in San Ysidro to accommodate trolleys and buses in an environment that is safe and inviting for the public.

Commissioner Naranjo then shared that SANDAG is seeking public input for the Sustainable Freight Implementation Strategy for San Diego and Imperial Counties to create multimodal freight projects and policies, pilot innovative technologies, develop a workforce, and identify funding sources. The Portside Community Air Toxics Model and Risk Assessment was presented to identify pollution sources and prioritize risk reduction strategies. Updates to the Portside Community Steering Committee Charter were discussed, and subcommittees identified priorities for the year. SDG&E invited the committee to their EV Fleet Day event to engage participants about MCAS implementation.

Commissioner Naranjo then shared her attendance at the American Association Port Authorities Spring Legislative Summit, where she had meetings with several Congress members, the EPA office of Transportation and Air Quality, and other federal agency partners. The summit was an opportunity to discuss and showcase the Maritime Clean Air Strategy and update policymakers about the updated National City Balanced Plan.

Commissioner Urtasun announced that he attended the Seatrade Cruise Global, a trade show for the cruise industry in Fort Lauderdale. Commissioner Urtasun shared he met with the Port Everglades and Disney Cruise Lines, who reported that bookings are back up to 2019 levels and are adding three new vessels to their fleet in 2024 and 2025. The industry is focused on reducing emissions while still offering an amazing vacation opportunity. The Port is making improvements to the terminal, and the cruise lines were pleased to provide valuable feedback on the conceptual design.

H. Special Recognition

Jeff Geary, Assistant Chief of Harbor Police, announced that in 1994, President Bill Clinton proclaimed the second week of April as National Public Safety Telecommunicators week. Assistant Chief Geary recognized Harbor Police Dispatchers, Lora Smoot, Rhonda Lockwood, David O'Bryant, Sara Welch, Jackie DeSagun, Selena Vasquez, and Marisol Gaona for their incredible work, dedication and sacrifice. In addition, Assistant Chief Geary recognized the following officers who volunteer in the communications center to supplement staffing; Christine Sperry, Malcolm Chambers, and Corporal Sara Goes.

Monique Halgrims, Administrative Assistant II, Real Estate, recognized April as World Autism Awareness Month and the Port's dedication to raising awareness, understanding, and acceptance for individuals on the Autism Spectrum. Ms. Halgrims announced that April 2, 2023 was World Autism Awareness Day in which Port staff took part in the Race for Autism Superhero 5k Run/Walk. Also, staff participated in a workshop that hosted the National Foundation of Autism Research (NFAR) and a few local businesses who hire or are operated by neurodivergent individuals.

Ms. Halgrims then recognized the following celebrations: Passover, April 5-13, a Jewish holiday that commemorates the story of the Israelites' departure from ancient Egypt; Easter, April 9, a Christian holiday that celebrates the belief in the resurrection of Jesus Christ; and Eid-al-Fitr, April 21, which commemorates the end of the fasting month of Ramadan.

I. President's Report.

Joe Stuyvesant, President/CEO, announced the Port hosted a panel discussion to celebrate National Women's History Month, with the theme "Celebrating Women who Tell our Stories." The panel was facilitated by Marguerite Elicone and featured Commissioner Danielle Moore, Harbor Police Chief Magda Fernandez, Shelly Hart from Maritime, and Sheila Kanoya from Parks & Recreation. The panelists shared their experiences and stories, answering questions and creating a lively and enjoyable atmosphere.

Mr. Stuyvesant then shared that Austal hosted a tour of their new shipyard facility in National City for students from Sweetwater High School, as part of their commitment to engaging with the local community. During the tour, the students were introduced to Austal leadership, had a discussion about career opportunities in ship building and repair, and visited the weld shop. They also had the opportunity to tour the USS Canberra, an LCS vessel moored at Austal, and were given a tour of the mission bay and flight deck by Navy Staff. The visit was a great opportunity for the students to learn about potential careers in shipbuilding and repair along the waterfront.

Mr. Stuyvesant then announced that the Port of San Diego held its inaugural People of the Port Career fair on Friday, April 7th at the InterContinental hotel. Mr. Stuyvesant thanked staff, Port tenants and the San Diego Working Waterfront for participating and putting the event together.

J. District Clerk's Announcements.
